Proposal 2: Consolidation of shares

1. Reasons for the proposal

As announced in the “Action Plan for Consolidating Trading Units,” domestic Japanese exchanges are aiming to standardize the trading units for shares of common stock (“units”) issued by all domestic listed companies to 100-share units by October 1, 2018.

As a bank listed on the Tokyo Stock Exchange, the Bank intends to honor this plan. At a meeting of its Board of Directors on April 26, 2018, the Bank resolved to transition from trading in 1,000-share units to trading in 100-share units, on the condition that this proposal is approved. Under the proposed transition, the Bank will consolidate shares (every 2 shares into 1 share) as described below, with the aim of keeping its investment units at a level considered desirable by Japanese stock exchanges (at least ¥50,000 and less than ¥500,000).

2. Details of the share consolidation

(1) Consolidation ratio

The Bank proposes to consolidate every 2 shares of common share into 1 share.

Pursuant to the Companies Act, any fractional shares resulting from the share consolidation will be disposed of collectively, and the proceeds of the disposal will be distributed to the shareholders thereof in proportion to their fractional holdings.

(2) Effective date of share consolidation

October 1, 2018

(3) Total number of shares authorized to be issued as of the effective date

395,014,500 shares

In proportion of the share consolidation, the number of authorized shares will reduce from the present figure of 790,029,000 shares to 395,014,500 shares.

(4) Other matters

The Bank intends to designate other essential matters, including how to dispose of fractional shares, to the Board of Directors.

[Reference]

If the proposal is approved as drafted, the Bank will, pursuant to Articles 182, Paragraph 2 and 195, Paragraph 1 of the Companies Act, effect an amendment to its Articles of Incorporation on October 1, 2018, without seeking shareholder approval for the amendment. The amendment will be as follows.

Furthermore, although he has no experience in corporate management, apart from having previously been an Outside Officer, we have determined that he will be able to fulfill his duties as an Outside Director in an appropriate manner. Hiroshi Uchimura will have served as an Outside Director for two (2) years upon the conclusion of this meeting. [Regarding independence] Hiroshi Uchimura fulfills the criteria set out in the Keiyo Bank's "Standards for Evaluation of the Independence of Outside Officers."
